

How are children with SEND supported in The Den?

Teaching and support staff have a very close relationship with our out-of-hours provision (The Den) and any relevant information to support individual children is shared appropriately. The manager of The Den liaises regularly with school SENCO to discuss individual needs and appropriate provision prior to and during the time a child attends the out-of-hours club.

